

Getting Started with Drum Lessons

A quick guide to booking your Taster Lesson

Your Taster Lesson is a full-length, one-to-one drum lesson at a reduced first-lesson price. The booking form helps us understand your preferred location, availability and drumming experience.

You'll also add your contact details and complete payment securely online.

WHAT THE BOOKING FORM WILL ASK YOU

Choose a location

Choose your preferred studio, or select a flexible option if you are open to more than one location.

Share your experience

Tell us whether you are a beginner, returning player, intermediate learner or more experienced drummer.

Pick a preferred time

Choose a suitable lesson time if one suits you, or leave the slot flexible if you would like us to look for the best available match.

Add your availability

Share the days and times you are usually free. This helps with your first lesson and with regular lessons if you decide to continue.

Good to know

- ✓ You do not need previous experience.
- ✓ You do not need to read music.
- ✓ Your tutor will shape the first lesson around your experience level and musical interests.
- ✓ If a small timing adjustment is needed, we'll contact you before confirming the final lesson details.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER YOU BOOK

1

Booking received

You'll receive a payment receipt and booking acknowledgement.

2

Lesson details confirmed

We'll send your confirmed lesson details, including the studio address and map link, separately by email.

3

Take your first lesson

Meet your tutor, try the kit and get a feel for how ongoing lessons could work for you.

AFTER YOUR TASTER

After your first lesson, we'll help you understand the best next step. You can continue with one-to-one lessons, arrange a learning pattern with your tutor, and join the Drum Pass if you plan to continue taking lessons regularly.

The Drum Pass: Gives regular learners access to member lesson pricing, selected resources, events and partner offers to support ongoing learning.

Ready to book?

Complete the Taster Lesson form and tell us your preferred location, availability and drumming experience.
